There's something like a line of gold thread running through a man's words when he talks to his daughter, and gradually over the years, it gets to be long enough for you to pick up in your hands and weave into a cloth that feels like love itself.

John Gregory Brown.

Having a daughter makes you see things in a different way. This is my only girl. So I don't care what it takes to protect her. You can call it what you want to call it. As long as you treat her the same way I treat her, like my princess, I don't mind.

Tracy Morgan.

There will always be a few people who have the courage to love what is untamed inside of us. One of those men is my father.

Alison Lohman in Flicka.

My Daddy was my hero.
He was always there for me when I needed him.
He listened to me and taught me so many things. But most of all he was fun.

Bindi Irwin.
