MOSES

THE PRINCE OF EGYPT

---

- The Hebrew name “MOSES” is given to him by the Pharaoh’s daughter because she said, “I pulled him out of the water.”
- is a prophet in Abrahamic religions.
- According to the Hebrew Bible, he was a former Egyptian prince who later in life became a religious leader and lawgiver, to whom the authorship of the Torah is traditionally attributed.
- Also called “Moshe Rabbenu” in Hebrew.

After, Joseph, his brothers, and everyone else in that generation had died, the people of Israel became so numerous that whole region of Goshen was full of them.

Many years later a new king came to power. He did not know what Joseph had done for Egypt. He thought they might take over his country. So he made the people of Israel their slaves.

MOSES ESCAPES FROM EGYPT

- Moses killed an Egyptian and when the king heard what he had done, the king wanted to kill him but he escaped and went to the land of Midian.
- He stayed on with Jethro, who later let his daughter Zipporah marry Moses.
- They had a son, Moses named it Gershom because he is a foreigner in that country.
