Victims of love

Our hearts have been to battle

Our souls have been to war

We've lost the will to carry on , we don't believe no more

Oh why is it that we got it set

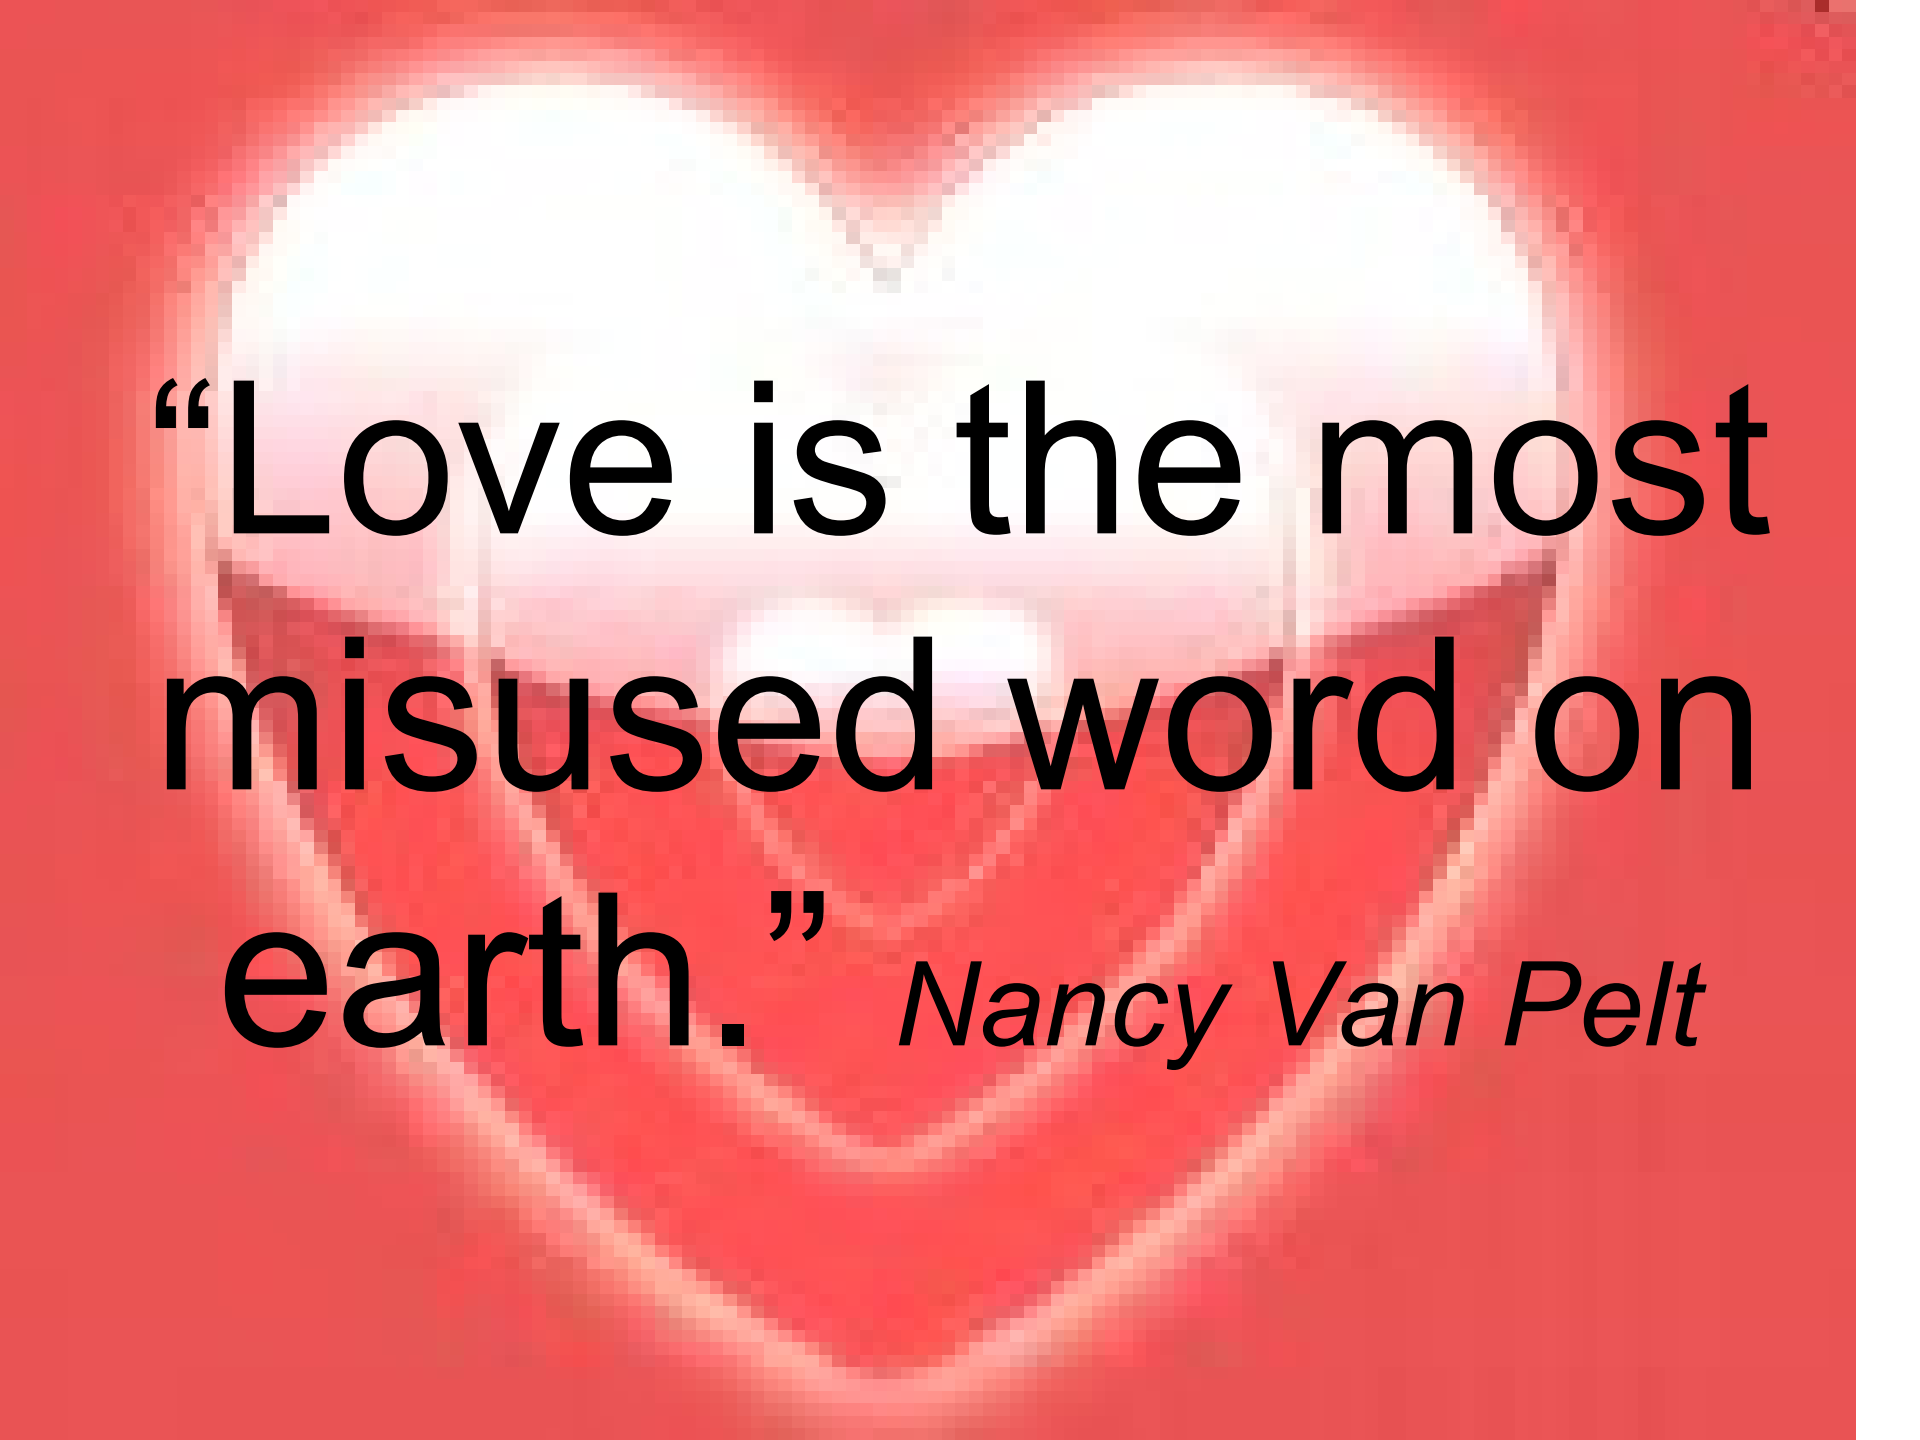

That this could never happen to us

How could it be cause baby here we are

Victims of love are broken down
unfair

So sad to see the debris
Scattered everywhere Victims of love , still cannot believe

We are the victims of love
We cannot retreat

“Love is the most misused word on earth.” Nancy Van Pelt

view about LOVE.

What does the Bible say about love?

Old Testament

God chose the Israelites as His special people because He loved them

(Deuteronomy 4:37, 10:15, Isaiah 43:1-4).

Hear, O Israel: The LORD
our God, the LORD is one.
Love the LORD your God
with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

(NIV, Deuteronomy 6:4-5)

Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD.

(NIV, Leviticus 19:18)

What does the Bible say about love?

New Testament

Two different Greek words are translated as "love" in the New Testament, and they have more specific meanings than our English word "love."

Phileo* (verb). This means to love in an impulsive and emotional way. It is seldom used in the Bible, but there is a play on words (lost in English) in John 21:15-17.

Agapao* (verb) and agape (noun).

This is the "Christian love" of the Bible. It means affection, benevolence, good-will, high esteem and concern for the welfare of the one loved. It is deliberate, purposeful love rather than emotional or impulsive love. Almost all of the New Testament references to love are agapao or agape in the original Greek.

agape as "charity,"
but charity has now taken on the meaning of assistance to the poor
rather than benevolent love.

Jesus says to Peter, "Simon son of John, do you truly love (agapao) me?" Peter answers, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love (phileo) you."

Philadelphia is a related word meaning the love of brothers or sisters (e.g., Romans 12:10).

It is often translated
"brotherly love."

God's love for mankind

God is love, and all who live in love live in God, and God
lives in them.

(NLT, 1 John 4:16)

Are not five sparrows sold for two cents? And yet not one of them is forgotten before God. Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear; you are of more value than many sparrows.

(NAS, Luke 12:6-7)

- Love the Lord your God

Jesus said our most important responsibility
in life is to love God:

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?" "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.'

(NIV, Mark 12:28-30)

- Love your neighbor

Our second most important responsibility in life is to love other people. Jesus went on to say,

The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these.

(NRSV, Mark 12:31)

Apostle Paul said that Christian love is the greatest and most essential of all the spiritual gifts. Even faith is worthless without love!

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy
gong or a clanging
cymbal.

And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains,
but do not have love, I am nothing.
If I give away all my possessions,
and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

(NRSV, 1 Corinthians 13:1-3)

Love is patient; love is kind;
love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.
It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice
in wrongdoing, but rejoices
in the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end... And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

(NRSV, 1 Corinthians 13:4-8, 13)

And now faith, hope,
and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

(NRSV, 1 Corinthians 13:4-8, 13)

Jesus greatly expanded the scope and importance of love, saying love of God and love of fellowman are the most important of all the commandments. The apostle Paul said Christian love was the greatest and most essential of all the spiritual gifts.

Throughout the New Testament, we are encouraged and commanded to live in peace with all God's people (Romans 12:17-18) and commit ourselves to genuine love and caring for others (1 John 3:17-18).

Let us possess the LOVE of GOD and live in it so that we can be a blessing to others.
