What is a promise? Write a definition. Write an example of a promise given to you.

Who is Abram? (Copy question and answer.)

Descendent of Shem, father named Terah, two brothers and married to Sarai, no children, 75 years old living in Ur with family.

“Go from your country, your people and your father’s household to the land I will show you.”

(Copy this in your notes.)

God

What were the 3 things he was to leave
(Write them.)

LEAVE!

country: place of origin

people: ethnic or cultural group

father’s household: immediate family

COMFORT ZONE

“Go from your country, your people and your father’s household to the land I will show you.”

God

To where was he to go?
“...a land I will show you.”

What is God requiring of Abram by not telling him exactly where he was to go?

FAITH

“Faith is believing, just not trusting in God's grace or certain of God's favor something”uld risk death a thousand times trusting in it.” Martin Luther

1 THE LORD had said to Abram, "Go from your country, your people and your father's household to the land I will show you."

2 "I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

3 Promises to Abraham's Descendants

Genesis 12:1-3

- Land
- Nation
- Blessing

? What is a promise? ?

promise:noun

1 a declaration or assurance that one will do something or that a particular thing will happen:

Why do we make promises? (Discuss and write what you think to these questions.)

Why do you think God made promises to Abram if he could have accomplished them immediately?

What do you think he is revealing about himself?

Why would he require faith of Abram?
