

By Omar Nawaz, 9D

The republic of

Ireland

General information

- Capital: Dublin
- Official languages: English and Irish
- Area: 84,421 km²
- Population: 6,378,000 people
- Largest city: Dublin and Belfast
- Currency: Euro

Map

The Irish flag

Ireland

- Is an island located to Europa's northwest, in the north atlantics ocean.
- The island is divided in The republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Land marks

Ben Bulbin

Is the most stunning rock formation in Ireland. It is a part of the Dartry Mountains. The rock was shaped during the ice age. And it is a tough climb it takes approximately two and half an hour to climb.

The Cliffs of Moher

Probably Ireland's top tourist attraction and landmark. The cliffs rise 394 ft above the Atlantic Ocean. It attracts over a million visitors per year. It's located in County Clare, Ireland.

Sights of Ireland.

Fun fact:
Built 1,000 years before the the pyramid of Giza,
Egypt.

Newgrange

Is ancient and is probably Ireland's best known site.

It is a part of the Brú na
Bóinne complex of Neolithic passage tombs on the river
Boyne. It has been dated to 3,200 BC.

The tomb excavated between 1962 and 1975.

Sights of Ireland

Dublin City

Is a relatively small city. But rich of history.

There are plenty of places to visit.

But avoid the city center on Saturdays when half the population seems to go shopping there.

St Patrick's Cathedral

Hurling (Sport)

- Hurling is the national sport of Ireland. It is played with a ball and sticks.
- It's very popular in Ireland and is played by many people.
- The sports origin is Gaelic and is very old.

Niall Horan (famous people)

- Niall James Horan is a member of the pop band “One direction”.
- He was born in Mullingar, County Westmeath, Ireland. At the 9th of September, 1993. (Age 20)

U2 (famous people)

- U2 is an Irish rock band from Dublin. It was formed in 1976.
- It consist of Bono, The edge, Adam Clayton and Larry Mullen Jr.
- Their most famous song is 'Beautiful Day' (2002)

Facts about Ireland

- The Irish capital, Dublin is home to over one quarter of the total population.
- Saint Patrick's Day is Ireland's official national holiday.
- Ireland was one of the initial 12 European Union nations that began using the euro currency in 2002.
- At the Olympics, boxing is Ireland's most successful sport