

Places Of Worship

By: Jessie Prosser 7H2

Introduction

Hello, my name is Jessie Prosser and I am doing this project about Places of Worship. Also I am going to show you many different types of Places that people worship their beliefs in many different religions but they all seem to be the same thing but at different ways and different beliefs and places. Let's start off with the Jews places of worship.

Synagogues

- There is a Synagogue in Buffalo ,New York.
- The synagogues to the Jewish is like a church for the Christians.
- It is the Jewish's centre of their religion.
- Synagogues is used for prayers and for their education.

Synagogue

- There are many pieces of worship in the synagogue.
- Such as the Torah.
- There is also the Ark and the cabinets to hold there most important precession the TORAH.

Temples

- There are many religions that Temples are used for there prayers and beliefs.
- There is Hindu, Buddhist, Jewish, Indian, Sikh and many more religions that involve a Temple.
- Temples are used for prayers, education and many more.
- There is also many Temples all around Europe.

Golden Temple

- A Very famous Temple is the Golden Temple in Amritsar ,India.
- The Golden Temple was built by the Sikh's on December 1588AD and finished construction on August 1604 AD.
- It is also known as the Harmandir Sahib.
- It is the most holiest temple to the Sikh religion.

Harmandir Sahib

- Many Famous people visited there such as Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip on October 14 1997.
- All the gold on the Golden temple is real and was donated by the Indian Emperor Ranjit Singh.

Christians and Catholics

- Churches are used by the religions of the Christians and the Catholic.
- Christians and the Catholics both believe in God and Jesus, however Christians believe you will go to heaven if you believe in Jesus and God.
- Catholics Believe you will only go to heaven if you had a good life.

Churches

- Churches are very important to the Christianity religion just like the Jews and the Sikh's.
- They go to church to say there prayers usually every Sunday morning.
- The symbol for the Christianity is the cross.
- Churches has been on earth since the 1600's

Where are Churches?

- There is Churches all around the world.
- Christianity is the most common religion.
- North America and Europe is where most of the churches and Christian people live.
- There is always a cross with Jesus on it to represent there religion.

Saint Peters Basilica

- It is the most famous church and is in the city of Vatican, Rome.
- It was built on April 8 ,1506 and finished in the year of 1626.
- It is the most largest church In the world! Also it can hold up to 600,000 people in side in only ONE room!
- It is the holiest church to the Christians and Catholics.

THE END

- THANK YOU FOR TAKING YOU'RE TIME TO LISTEN TO MY PROJECT OF:
- PLACES OF WORSHIP!!

